

Doug Mann, President and CEO, is retiring after 24 years with the Credit Union

Doug Mann began his career with HMECU in 1994 and has been an integral part of the Credit Union's success ever since. He has skillfully led HMECU in both the CFO and CEO roles through some of the Credit Union's most prosperous times. His dedication and commitment throughout the years has been nothing less than outstanding.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, Senior Management, staff, and members, we want to thank Doug for his many years of service, and for being an important force within the Credit Union System. We wish Doug all the very best in his retirement.

Healthcare and Municipal Employees' Credit Union has a strong history of proudly serving the employees and families of healthcare and local municipal government for over 80 years. HMECU has branches and offices in Hamilton, Burlington, and Brantford. Visit www.HMECU.com for more information.
